SAMUEL AYERS.

FORMERLY OF DANVILLE, KENTUCKY, WATCH MAKER.

Successor to B. F. Meek, Main Street, Frankfort, Ky., continues the watch repairing business at the old stand. By promptness and careful work he hopes to merit the patronage of those who desire to have their watches repaired without damage being done them. Surveyors' compasses repaired and other instruments requiring delicate and accurate adjustment.

In retiring from business I take pleasure in expressing my entire confidence in Mr. S. Ayres, and from my long acquaintance with him as a workman, do not hesitate to commend him as every way capable of meeting the expectation of my former patrons.

B. F. MEEK.

Mary's Lamb on a New Principle.

Mollie had a little ram as black as a rubber shoe, And everywhere that Mollie went, he emigrated too. He went with her to church one day—the folks hilarious grew To see him walk demurely into Deacon Allen's pew. The Deacon quickly let his angry passions rise, And gave it an unchristian kick between the sad brown eyes. This landed rammy in the aisle; the Deacon followed fast, And raised his foot again; alas! that first kick was his last, For Mr. Sheep walked slowly back, about a rod 'tis said, And ere the Deacon could retreat he stood him on his head. The congregation then arose and went for that there sheep, But several well-directed Butts just piled them in a heap. Then rushed they straightway for the door with curses long and loud. While rammy struck the hindmost man and shoved him through the crowd. The Minister had often heard that kindness would subdue The fiercest beast. "Aha!" he said, "I'll try that game on you." And so he kindly, gently called, "Come, rammy, rammy, ram, To see the folks abuse you so, I grieved and sorry am." With kind and gentle words he came from that tall pulpit down, Saying, "Rammy, rammy ram—best sheep in all the town." The ram quite dropped it's humble air, and rose from off its feet, And when the Parson landed he was behind the hindmost seat. And as he shot without the door, and closed it with a slam, He named a California town—I think 'twas "Yuba Dam."

Switzer.

Miss Emma Stone is visiting at Mrs. Pony South's.

Mrs. Howell and Mrs. Poplin are visiting at J. B. Hockensmith's this week.

Rev. J. D. Bohannon, of Georgetown, preached to the people of North Fork last Sunday.

Jack frost has again visited our neighborhood. Lookout, you men that have tobacco to cut.

Our little town is improving very fast of late. Mr. P. C. Smith has opened a wood and blacksmith shop here.

Mr. James Carter has improved the looks of our town very much by repairing some of his buildings. May the good work still go on.

Our farmers are quite busy preparing to sow their fall grain. Potato digging and cutting corn are two important branches of industry at this time.

Mr. B. H. McCoy, who came home from Illinois several weeks ago, on a visit, has concluded not to return but has accepted a clerkship with J. H. Switzer, in a general store at this place.

Messrs. J. M. Lyon, J. C. Hopkins, Dudley Baker, and others who visited Louisville on the twelfth for the purpose of witnessing the grand turnout in that city, were well pleased with their visit. They saw many wonderful things.

One of our young men started to Church last Sunday morning, but before he had gone very far he was led to believe that he could do more good by going elsewhere, so he turned and went, as his feeling directed him, to visit a little sick friend across the way. The dear little friend has been improving ever since.

ONCE A WEEK.

Bridgeport.

Mrs. Colon Jones is quite ill.

Old Uncle Winston Vaughan is very much indisposed.

Mrs. Allen Hamilton has been quite sick, but is better now.

Sorghum making is in full blast. Crop below an average.

Born.—Sept. 24th, 1882, to Ollie Seantland and wife, a son.

Sam. Parrent, who has been quite ill, is able to be out again.

Miss Alma Scofield paid a visit to friends in Louisville last week.

Miss Addie Crockett has returned from a visit to friends at Purrington.

Miss Bettie Wilson is visiting friends in Graefenburg, Shelby county.

Mrs. Henry Sargent is visiting her mother's family in Boone county.

Rev. R. F. Middleton, of this place, preached at North Benson Church last Sunday.

Mrs. Jno. Angrave has returned home after an absence of several days in Frankfort.

At the mule show in this town last week Mr. Charlie Mayhall carried off the premium.

Mrs. Annie Demaree, of Louisville, is spending several weeks with friends in this section.

Mr. T. R. Parrent (Uncle Tom), of Anderson county, visited friends in this vicinity last week.

Mr. J. B. Russell and wife, and W. F. Russell took in the Louisville Exposition this week.

Mr. Jos. Parrent and wife visited their son, Mr. R. H. Parrent, and family in Shelby county last week.

Miss Lillie Russell, who has been in Woodford county during the past week or two, has returned home.

Mr. Jas. Happell and family, of Cincinnati, have returned home from a visit to relatives in this section.

The enlargement of the ROUNDABOUT is a source of gratification to its many readers in this section. Long may it wave.

Col. T. B. Ford, Common School Commissioner, visited our school last Monday, in an official capacity. He reports the school in a prosperous condition.

Your type in last week's issue made us say J. H. Jenkins and wife visited friends in Woodford, Scott and Fayette counties, when it should have been J. W. Jenkins and wife.

Belle Point.

Mr. Jas. A. Violett has moved to town.

Miss Katie Graham is quite sick with chills and fever.

Mr. T. C. Hale has laid a stone pavement in front of his residence.

Mr. Ed. Brawner, furnishes the hungry with fresh meat every morning.

Mrs. S. V. Pence visited Mrs. Olliver, near Lewis' Ferry, the first of the week.

Mr. Jas. D. Moore is building an addition to his residence on Kentucky avenue.

The Steamer S. V. Pence landed at our wharf Thursday morning and supplied some of our citizens with Pittsburg coal at 14 cents per bushel.

The Railroad bridge has received a new coat of red paint. Captain Hardie says he has ordered paint for the Benson bridge and will have it painted as soon as it arrives.

Miss Lizzie Thompson, who has been visiting the Misses Todd, at Lake Park, returned to her home in St. Louis Thursday morning, accompanied by Miss Mattie Todd, who will remain some time.

The walk on Kentucky avenue, between Todd and Major streets, is very much out of repair. There is a town ordinance requiring owners of property to build walks in front of same and keep them in repair. The Marshal should look into this.

Mr. Wm. Coulter returned Wednesday from an extended trip to the Mountains, bringing with him the skin of a rattlesnake he killed in Bath county. It measured about six feet and had nine rattles beside the button.

NEW ARRIVALS.

Born.—To Geo. Shackelford and wife, Monday, the 25th, a boy. To Augustus Robinson and wife, Wednesday, the 27th, a boy. To Major F. P. Lewis and wife, Thursday, the 28th, a girl.

When you have got an old horse that has passed the market period, apply a bottle of Kendall's Spavin Cure and the result will be marvelous. Read advertisement.
